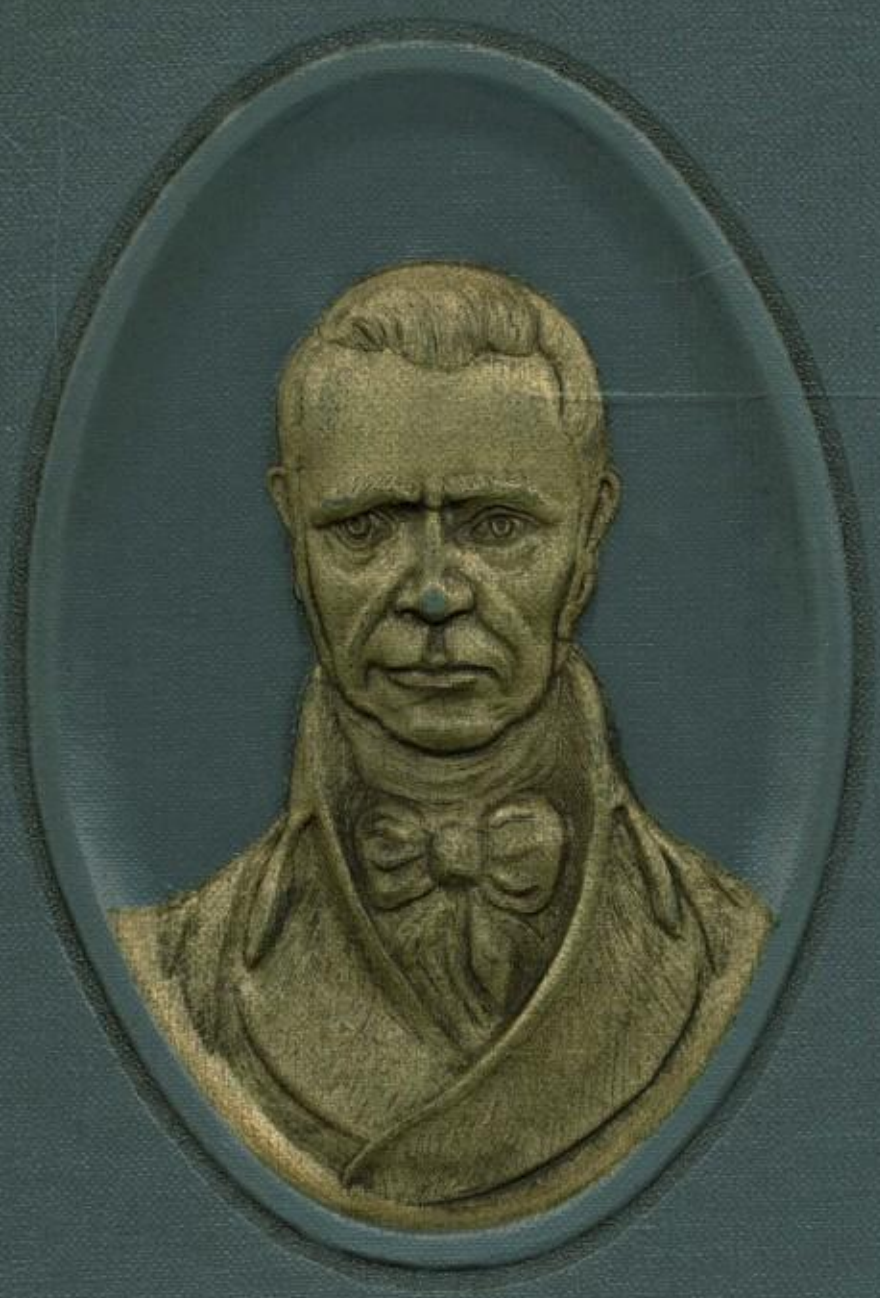
JOHN MARSHALL



NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SIXTY

To Deb,
Gosh Deb,
there isn't enough room to write all the things about you, but you can be sure they're all great.
Love ya Loads
Bill Rankin

Deb -
You're wonderful - as a friend and everything you do is for someone else. You're thoughtful and to top it, you're a doll - Much Love -
Susie

Debbie
You're a great cheerleader. You did a lot for our school spirit + moral?
Lots of Luck
Paul (with Willie)

Debbie,
What can I say except that I hope we will always be as good of friends as we are now. I even guess (shucks) that we will be even better buddies. (You're pretty) anyhow (shucks you're nice) you're just neat. All the happiness in the world (shucks) forever. Lots of (shucks) love
Daryl

Debbie,
You have such a wonderful, warm personality and great looks. You deserve the best of luck always.
Love ya,
Barbara
Peggy 160

Deb,
Well another year has gone by and we're still the best of friends, I guess. You may guess from all I've told you I couldn't have gotten along without you this year. Thanks so much for getting me over Michael, I couldn't have done without your confidence. May God go with you through the rest of your life.
Love,
Judi

Debbie,

You're a swell girl who is both sweet a charming. I've truly enjoyed and shall enjoy having you as a friend

Randy Duncan

Debbie,

You're just a little doll and I truly mean it. I've really enjoyed knowing you and I'll never forget the time we did your hair! Be sweet.

Save ya!

Eddie Fairchild

Jr. 59-60

Debbie

To a great girl
a real good,
good friend whom
I will
I hope I

Debbie,

You, truly, have been one of the highlights of my year!

Debbie, you are so sharp, and sincere, and wonderful, and loyal, and trustworthy, and friendly, and likable, and sweet, and good, and Christian, and great! I love you!

I think that we've been through a lot together, but something good has come of it all.

Debbie you never need worry about anything because your few problems are always solved by you and your many friends.

You are so popular and you deserve it all. I don't know what I would do without you.

HIGH LIG

I, too, am sorry that we were not closer this year, but I think our friendship is growing. I really hope so.

I'm sure that you and Willie will be very happy and I hope so.

The best of everything always to you and yours.

Sincerely,
Janette

Debbie,
It has been my pleasure knowing you, Your so cute and so nice. Thanks for letting be your friend. Your a darling girl and you already on your way to success. Lots of luck to a wonderful girl.

Lucia Inman and Sandy Osborne buy their supplies from Barbara Young and Lajuana Jones in the school store.

John Marshall made a Merry Christmas for many needy children by turning in more "Toys for Tots" than any other school in the city.

"A little hard luck can't keep a good man down," says Mike Allen.

SCHOOL LIFE

Queen Joyce Bilyeu and King Kenny Kemp were dancing on a cloud after the crowning of the Annual Belle and Beau at the Sweetheart Ball.

Katie Hays, Tom Tyler, Roy Phipps, and Kay Spaulding searched high and low for "the little green man," a free bid to the Sweetheart Ball.

Mr. Football, Daryl Stallings, escorts her highness, Miss Vicki Saye, off the football field after one of the highlights of the City Champions' victorious season.

The Christmas season brought Santa and festive decorations to the school store.

"Just think, someday I'll be a big senior," says Doug Inman to Dale Petree.

Judi Jones proudly show off her State F. F. A. Sweetheart jacket to Linda Dougan, Elverna Moore, Phyllis Williams, and Betty Burke.

Chapel is a regular Thursday morning event for many students including Joyce Bilyeu and Barry McNeill.

The Homecoming crowd eagerly awaited the crowning of their Queen.

As the boys prepare for the big game, they are looking forward to an evening of thrills and excitement.

This Harding player was burned in effigy at the Key Club bonfire.

Only these three witches knew the secret of the Homecoming Queen.

PARADE, BONFIRE, AND GAME THAT'S HOMECOMING!

Easily the biggest events of the year were the long prepared for Homecoming activities.

The annual Homecoming Dance held the Saturday night before the game showed promise of an exciting week of homecoming activities.

The blazing bonfire, cheering voices, and the ringing of the Victory Bell will long be remembered as heartwarming examples of John Marshall's tremendous school spirit.

"We'll find out who the Queen will be, just watch this pot and you will see" rang through the gym as the three amateur witches played an important roll in the Homecoming assembly the day of the big game.

Candidates for Homecoming Queen, followed by the marching band, pep-clubs, and two colorful floats could be seen and heard for miles around as the parade wound through the streets of the J. M. area. Following this was a short pep rally in hopes for a victorious evening.

THAT'S HOMECOMING!

Queen Sandy and her attendants were grateful and starry-eyed throughout the remainder of the evening.

Picking up passengers along the way, the big J. M. Bear was the main attraction of the parade.

SAY BEARS . . .

We know just what to do . . .

Oh yea . . .!

Pep assemblies played an important part in promoting school spirit and enthusiasm for the oncoming games.

SCHOOL SPIRIT . . . ?
YOU BET!

"We shall remember always thy r o y a l victories . . ." Yes, victories, defeat, fun, and tears all contributed to John Marshall's outstanding school spirit of the '59-'60 school year. Will we ever forget the dead silence of our crowd as the Key Club Victory Bell rang out the score? Or the night the lights went out at the Harding game? The Maypo (ugh) that was passed around uncooked at basketball games? What about the impromptu snake dance through Casady Square, and the likewise impromptu chickens on Harding's basketball court?

Many new traditions crept into our spirit—John's horn, Elverna in her Bear costume, the cheerleaders in their briefer uniforms, the Chaos Club, our new Alma Mater, and the Maypo chant.

There were soggy football games, roaring basketball g a m e s, nerve-wracking wrestling matches, and hilarious assemblies. Because of these things and the contributions of the faculty, administration, and organizations we have achieved a unity, school pride, and spirit never equalled in the history of John Marshall.

M-A-Y-P-O is the cry heard by the Chaos Club as they cheer the Bears on to victory.

As John blows the signal, the Bears "CHARGE" into another battle for victory.

Jim Gunn demonstrates the Key Club Victory Bell to Wendi Lake.

Behind every successful man is a successful woman.

"I'm gonna wash that man right out of my hair."

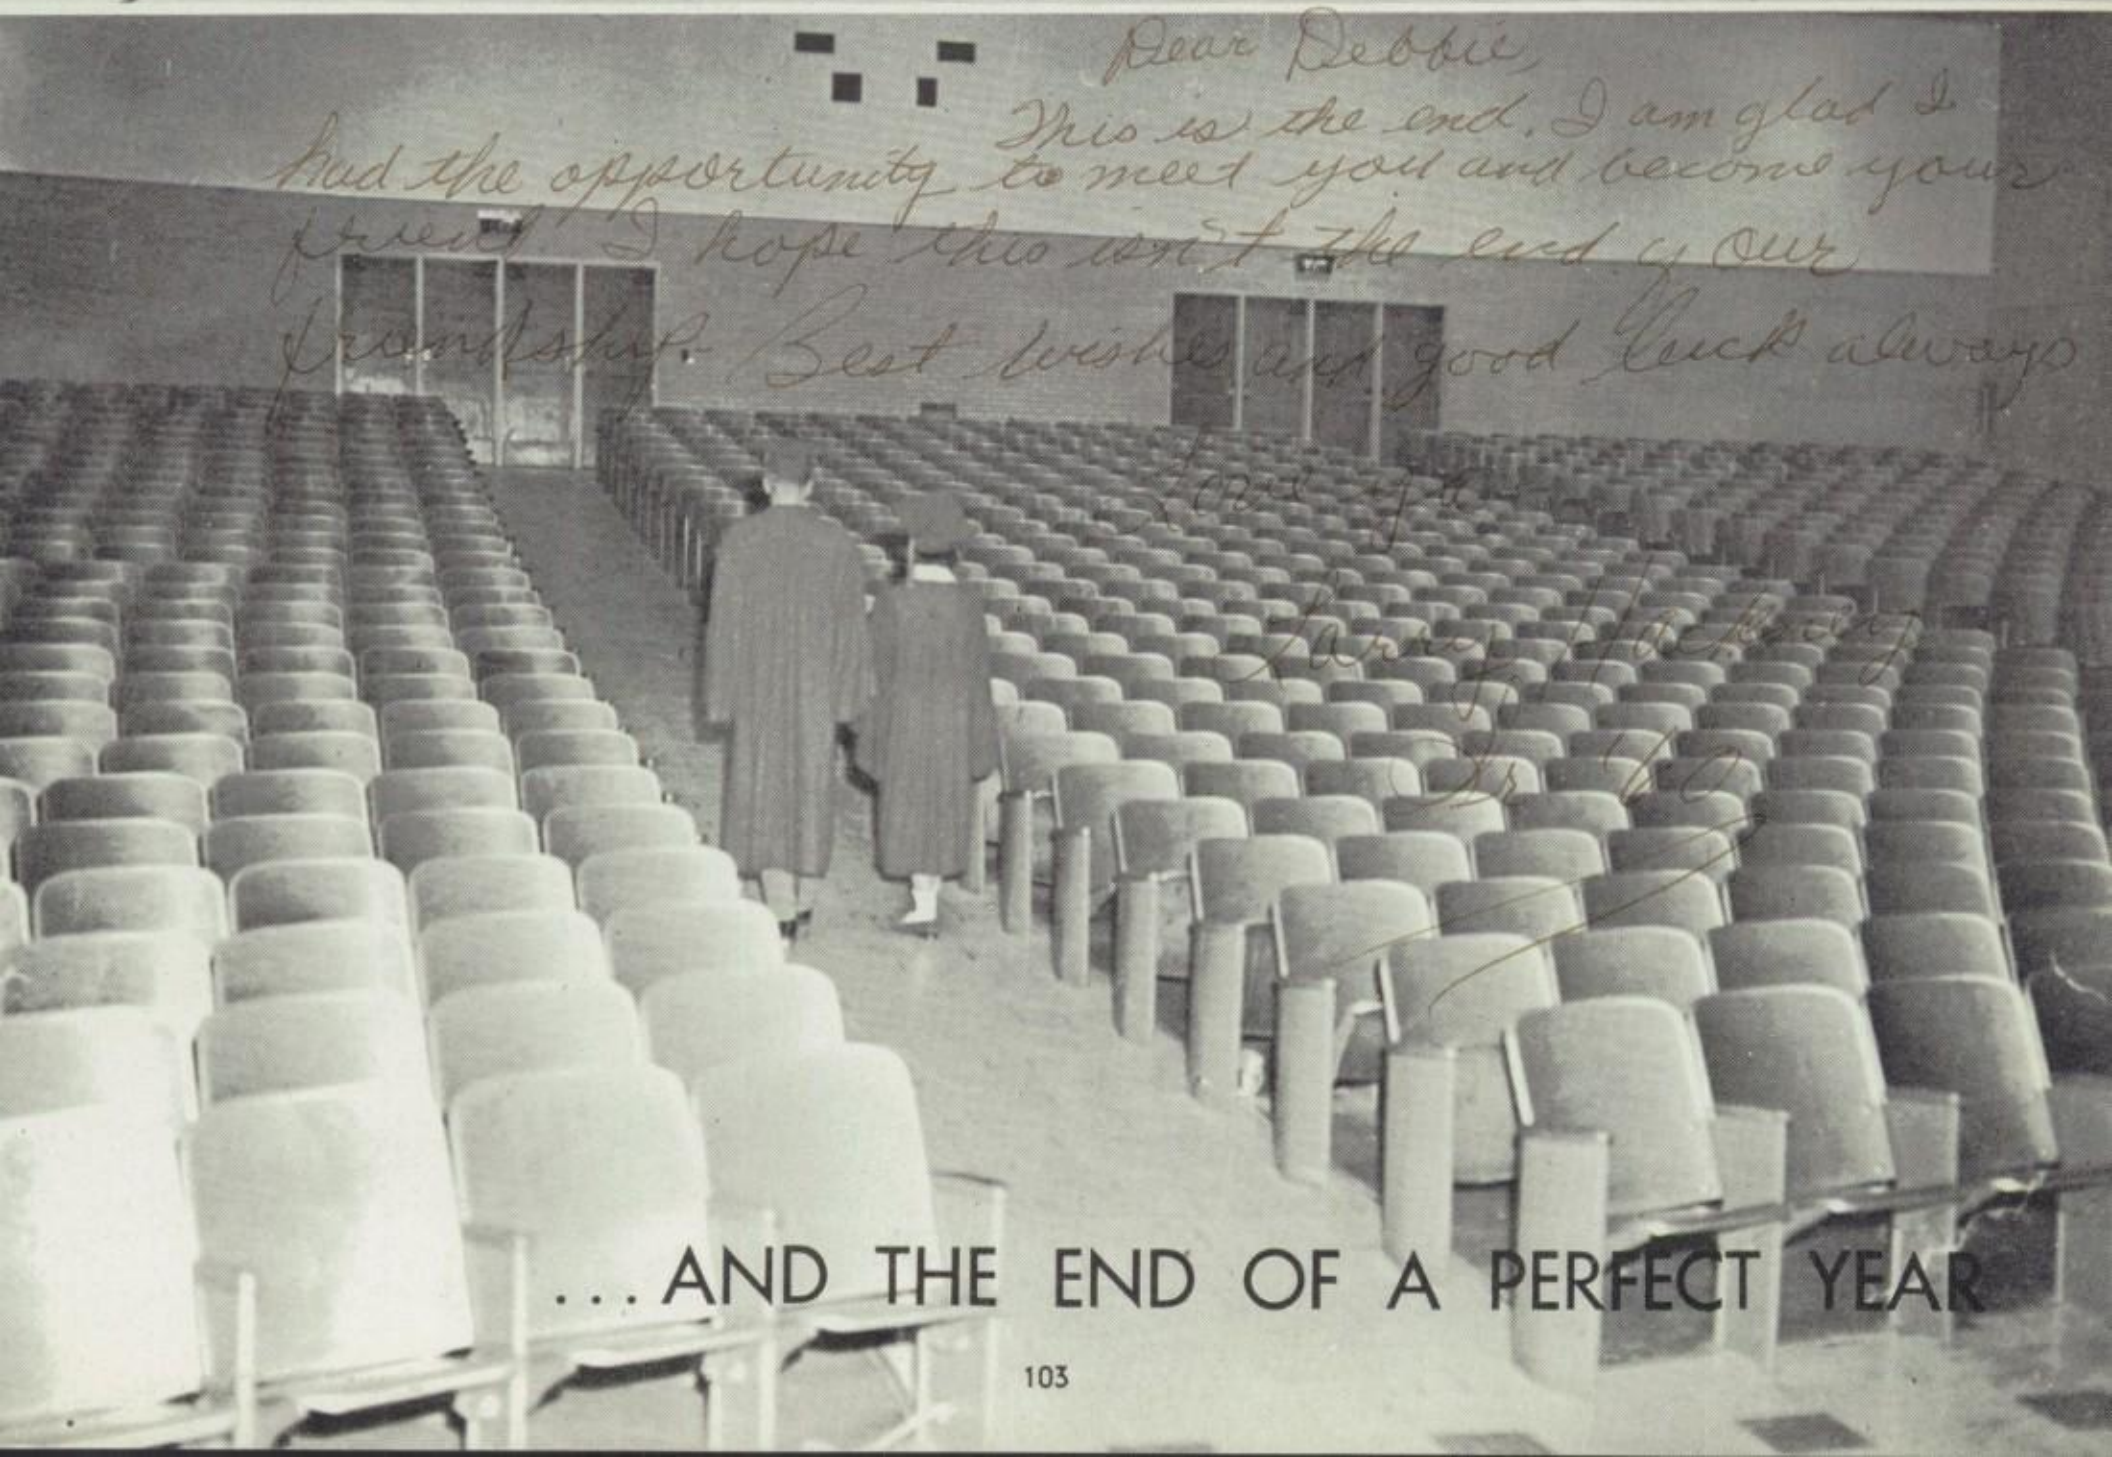
The crowded auditorium is slowly emptied after another enjoyable assembly.

The Leprechaun, Stan Shields, puts a curse on Kay Holt and David Hodson.

ASSEMBLIES

New and traditional assemblies made the 1959-'60 school year a memorable one for participants and audiences alike. Holidays, plays, and elections were excuses for fine programs by the students, but none could have been carried out without Mr. Mitchell and the hard-working stage crew who built sets, ran the lights and sound, and were completely responsible for the technical end of all our fine assemblies.

THE BEGINNING . . .



. . . AND THE END OF A PERFECT YEAR

ACTIVITIES

Debbie,

Every since we've been going together (11 month) it has been the happiest part of my life. You will never know what joy with you has meant to me. Sometimes things were pretty rough but I always knew that our love for each other would big us back together. In the past both of us were pretty much disloyal toward each other at least I know I was. But with a new understanding toward each other I'm sure we will be going together forever. Whenever I seem to be hateful toward you it's not because I don't love you it just that I'm so jealous of every boy that look at you. I know I shouldn't be this way but I just can't help it. If you love me as much as you say you do and I love you as much as I think I do we'll be going together through highschool + college.

P.S.

I hope some day (if it's O.K. with you) we'll be able to get married that is if it's real O.K. with you. Remember I'll always love you.

ES

To the very sweetest girl in the world. May your always have the very best. Lots of luck Bryan

Love you very much,
Willi

Debbie

Your a wonderful gal with a wonderful personality. I'll never forget all what you've done for me and I hope some day I can repay you. You are a very wonderful person. Always helping someone. I really hope someday someone can do as much for you as you've done for everyone eles. It was great in cheerleading camp. I hope this summer we can be as close as we were last if even more so. I really had a blast. Stay the way you are and I'm sure you'll go far. Good luck in everything you do and may Willie and you go together as long as you want (which is forever) Thanks alot for everything you have done for me. If there's any thing I can do for you just let me know- Lots of love

Candy

Good luck with senior-high cheerleading- (you really don't need it!)

God Bless Ya - your a great gal!

Debbie,
I think the world of you. You are, in my opinion, "the perfect girl." Your personality, charm, and grace are "the things" that make the Debbie we all know and love. If I had a chance to change — believe me I'd wish to be just like you. Never, have I seen you get really mad at anyone — and stay mad. That is only one of many many things that make you well liked by everyone. I hope that summer we will get to know each other better and have alot of fun. your friend — Love always,
Susan

Deb. I don't know what to say. I just don't know how I could have gotten along without you this year. I hope we'll have fun this summer. Promise you'll come down and see me if it's possible. You're a great and wonderful gal. I wish you all of the luck and happiness that can possibly come to you. May God bless you.
Love,
Vicki

Dear Debbie,
You are a real doll & I'm so glad that you are my friend. You'll be a big hit next yr in highschool.
Love,
Robbie

We would sincerely like to express our appreciation to our staff for the fine job they did in producing this book. Their conscientiousness was evident in the way they met every deadline, and often completed their work ahead of schedule so they could offer their services to those who needed them.

A diligent and efficient staff is essential in the production of a good book, and we were fortunate to have one. Each staff member tackled his respective job with enthusiasm and dispatch.

We sincerely hope that our efforts have not been in vain, and that we have accomplished our main goal . . . to entertain you, our reader.

Sincerely,
The Editors

DONNA GOLDSMITH

ROBERT KRASNOW

Debbie,
This last year has been great. We've really had fun and I hope you forgive me for my little? blowups at camp and this summer. Thanks for helping me with all my problems and being my worthy advisor.

Love,
Margie

Debbie
Hear ya girl
that so lovely I want

Debbie:
What can I add to what is already in this memory book? I would like to say however that I've grown to love you as a person and not only a personality. (Hope you know what I mean).
Allan Forsen Love Ya.'

Debbie
You have been a good friend for the time I've known you. The best of luck in the future.
Maryanne

Debbie
You're a real sweet girl with a great personality. You are one of the sharp cheerleaders. Make a sweetest and Luck and for cutest freshmen always May God bless you always Love us
Bev

I like you a lot, Jane! You are very nice and I think you will go far.
Daymond

Debbie,

You are truly the greatest girl in the whole new sophomore class. I really mean it. Your friendship has meant a great deal to me. You have a strong muscle ending faith in God and I am sure it will help you to have a success happy life.

I shall always remember you, Debbie, the greatest cheerleader and most beautiful queen.

Thank you so much for listening to all my worries and blues and your answers were always right.

In a few short years you will be ready for college & I know you will be a "Big Woman on Campus."

I love you

Anita

Debbie Wilke

Debbie,
You are one of the sweetest, nicest, girls I know. I have sure enjoyed being in typing class with you. I know that with your personality and beauty you will have no trouble in life

Dan Molitor

Debbie, You are one of the greatest girls, with the best personality that really makes you great. I hope you will be happy in every thing you do. Best of luck in the future Love ya, more

Debbie, You are one of the sweetest girl I know and I hope we will always be friends
Love,
Jim Haley

Dear, dear, Debbie, I guess you could say that we've been through a lot, but we've always made it. Debbie, you are the kind who will always make it and I sincerely hope so! I wish I could say more, but there just isn't room to say it all! The best to you and God bless you, Nanette

To a very sweet girl. Lots of luck in your future years.
Sandra Miller

P.S. Debbie, Can't first [illegible] what I say and mean I [illegible] towards your friend. skip-
